

18 April 2010

On 18 April 2010, China Pearls and Jewellery City Holdings Limited invited representatives from ten associations of

■ Pearl Festival Opening Ceremony

the pearl and jewellery industry from Hong Kong and overseas as well as consuls general and trade commissioners of various countries stationed in Hong Kong to join a trip to

■ Pearl Festival Opening Ceremony

Zhuji to attend the 7th China (International) Pearl Festival and the 2nd Pearl and Jewellery Purchasing Fair held at China Pearls and Jewellery City (“CP&J City”), Zhuji, Zhejiang, PRC.

■ Government Official Delivering a Speech

The associations joining the trip included the Hong Kong Pearl Association, the Tahitian Pearl Association Hong Kong, the Hong Kong Jewellery Manufacturers' Association, the Hong Kong Gemstone

■ Guests at the Ceremony

■ Acting Consul General of Chile in Hong Kong (right) Visiting booths at CP&J

Manufacturers' Association, the Hong Kong Jade Association, the Hong Kong Gold & Silver Ornament Workers & Merchants General Union, the Cultured Pearl Association of America, the Gemology Institute of America as well as representatives from Japan's pearl and timepiece industry.

The above events had attracted over 1,000 guests from all over China, Hong Kong and overseas as well as consuls general, trade commissioners and business representatives from Hong Kong, Japan, Myanmar, Vietnam, Southeast Asia, the U.S., Germany and Egypt.

■ Consul General of Germany in Hong Kong (middle) Visiting booths at CP&J